Attention Parents: (Regarding Parent Participation)

"Our 2 Youth Vice-Presidents are working countless hours to make sure that every parent/family is signed up to be parent of the day for 2 events over the course of the 2008-09 program year. It is the obligation for the parents to fulfill their duties as assigned and if they are unable to commit to what they'd signed up for, the parent is required to call other parents for their replacement for the specific event in which they have signed up. If no replacement is found, then the original parent needs to follow through as assigned for the specific event(s) during the year as parent of the day."
